

RENTING VS. BUYING

Whether you're in your first apartment or a longtime resident, there are many advantages you are afforded by choosing apartment living. We think you'll agree apartment life is a snug fit to any lifestyle.

Mobility: You enjoy the freedom to move, to accept that better job, to take the vacation you've dreamed of.

No Maintenance: Just relax and delight in the grounds and facilities maintenance technicians keeps attractive for you.

Choice: Whichever lifestyle you've chosen, you're sharing it with others with whom you have a common bond.

Flexibility: You have the ability to increase or decrease your living space without the burden of sales pitches, closing costs, interest rates or the high cost of maintaining a home and property.

Location: The choice is yours!

Recreation: Chances are, you've chosen an apartment community with a swimming pool, tennis court, weight room or sauna. Apartments have the equipment and people to maintain them, which is no small task for the homeowner.

No Waiting: If you're like most apartment residents, moving into your apartment was easy and fast. You settled into your new home without lengthy paperwork, a loan approval period or a large financial investment.
